SUBJECT: ASMDA 2015 Lieutenant General Larry Dodgen Memorial University Scholarship Program

Dear Members and Friends,

The Air, Space and Missile Defense Association (ASMDA) announces the 2015 college scholarship program in honor of Lieutenant General Larry Dodgen who dedicated his life to the defense of our nation and to enhancing our nation's ability to protect its citizens and troops from attack from enemy airborne and ballistic missile systems. This year we will be offering a $4000 college scholarship to one deserving student in the Air, Space and Missile Defense community through the Mayor Loretta Spencer University Scholarship Fund. This scholarship will be presented at the annual Space and Missile Defense Conference held at the Von Braun Center 10-13 August 2015.

The Lieutenant General Larry Dodgen Memorial University scholarship is available to Active Duty Army Soldiers, Reserve Soldiers, and National Guard Soldiers currently working for or assigned to SMDC, AMCOM, PEO Missiles and Space, AMRDEC, MDA, MSIC, and NASA Marshall Space Flight Center. The scholarship is also available to these soldiers' spouses and children. Attached is an information sheet that describes eligibility requirements, application requirements, selection criteria, and the application schedule. Please help get the word out to others within your organization and to deserving students by disseminating this information paper and encouraging eligible students to apply. Applications are due not later than July 24, 2015.

ASMDA is looking forward to reviewing many applications and continuing the long Huntsville tradition of supporting the advancement of higher education.

Thank you for your support,

Tommie E. Newberry
